

Kerr Dam Fun Daze Reservation Form
June 15-18, 2012

It's time to enjoy sailing, swimming, fishing, and relaxing with your Albacore friends and family at Kerr Lake near Henderson, North Carolina. Dig out those love beads and tie-dyed shirts for this year's theme, Back to the Sixties.

Please complete the form below and return it to Diane Goebes with your check made out to PRAF. Fee includes campsite, activities, and dinner on Saturday night. There is lots of space to beach your boat right at the campsite. The Henderson Point group campsite has drinking water and latrines, but no electricity. There's a new bath house with flush toilets and hot showers within a five minute walk in the public campground. You'll save $5 per person by registering before June 1, 2012, so hurry. We have the campsite from June 15 to June 18, so avoid the weekend traffic and extend your visit by arriving leaving late. That's one whole extra day of sailing!

Note: Our group campsite is for tents only. If you need a hook-up for an RV, contact the reservation center directly to reserve a site at Area 2 (877-7CAMPNC).

Questions? Look on the PRAF website and click on Kerr Dam Fun Daze for detailed schedule and directions, or contact Diane at goebes@verizon.net or George Wirth @ gwirth@alum.mit.edu.

I acknowledge there are no lifeguards or crash boats at this event. Activities are at my own risk. As with all Potomac River Albacore Fleet activities, I voluntarily assume sole responsibility for myself, guests/family, and boat.
